Atishi, in a post on X in Hindi, wrote, "Today inspected the roads from Assembly to ISBT and from there to Delhi Secretariat. Despite being a prominent and busy area of the city, she also flagged the poor maintenance of the Rajghat subway.

The PWD minister's office, in an official statement, said, "The minister has issued a stern directive to officials to prepare an action plan for the improvement of the road stretch in a week." She also cautioned engineers about the consequences of laxity in the maintenance.

1 killed, 2 hurt as car hits them in Rohini

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: A 70-year-old pedestrian died, while a woman and her son who were on a scooter were injured after a car hit them in Rohini on Monday morning, police said. The accused driver has been detained.

The deceased has been identified as Mohammad Yunus.

The incident took place at 6.37am near E-block area of Rohini Sector 1.

The two injured people, Swarn Arora (63) and his son Kamal (37), have been admitted to hospital.

Police said the blood samples of the driver, Rishab Singh, a resident of Budh Vihar, have been sent for tests to ascertain whether he was intoxicated while driving.

Another BJP leader, speaking on condition of anonymity, said, "In the state, obviously AIADMK is the larger party and EPS is the strongest leader of the party. This decision will only favour the DMK. We will have to see what the central leadership decides."

Late last week, BJP chief JP Nadda met a delegation from the AIADMK, possibly a last-ditch attempt by the Dravidian party to get the national party to act against its state chief, but with the BJP backing Annamalai, Monday's decision was a given.

The DMK-led alliance won 38 of the 39 Lok Sabha seats in 2019, and also comfortably won the state elections in 2021, but is widely expected to lose some ground to the AIADMK in 2024, according to analysts.

If anything, the BJP may have weighed down the AIADMK because its position on many issues runs counter to that of the Dravidian parties. The recent controversy over sanatana dharma - interpreted in the state as the rigidity of the however clarified that he did not denigrate Annadurai but only cited historical facts. "They are jealous of the growth of the BJP here," Annamalai has said. "Nobody has fallen on anyone's feet in BJP to become a leader," he added.

On September 18, Jayakumar said that their party cadre will not tolerate criticism against their leaders, accusing Annamalai of crossing the line of "alliance dharma".

The NDA in Tamil Nadu also comprises smaller outfits such as the Pattali Makkal Katchi (PMK), Desiya Murpokku Dravida Kazh (DMDK), Tamil Maanila Congress (TMC), Pattaya Tamizhagam (PT) and Puthiya Needhi Katchi. The PMK chose to keep its options open. "All three of them will want us in their coalition. We don't have to make any decision now when there are several months left for elections," said a senior party leader.

Annamalai said that the party's national leadership will soon speak on the development.

"The BJP national leadership will speak on AIADMK's decision," he told reporters in Coimbatore. "I will speak about it later."

allow the bill to pass, but suppress the women's character.

Rules amended, NGOs under FCRA will have to declare movable, immovable assets

Bharti Jain@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: NGOs and associations registered under the Foreign Contribution Regulation Act (FCRA) will now be required to annually declare details of movable and immovable assets created by them out of the foreign contributions received.

Amending the Foreign Contribution Regulation Rules, 2011 through a notification issued on September 22, the home ministry has revised Form FC-4 -- to be filled up as part of annual returns required to be submitted by NGOs under FCRA -- to introduce two new tables. Under the first table, the NGOs must list details of movable assets, their value at the beginning of the relevant financial year, value of assets acquired and disposed of during the financial year and their value as per the balance sheet at the end of the year.

In the second table relating to immovable assets, NGOs must list details of the land and buildings acquired from foreign contributions as on March 31 of the relevant financial year, their size, location and value as per the balance sheet. Currently, Form 4 only contains the field relating to purchase of fresh assets in the relevant year.

The change in rules came ahead of a six-month extension in validity of registration certificates issued to NGOs under FCRA, where such licence was or is due to expire between September 29, 2020 and March 31, 2024 but the application for its renewal has already been or will be submitted to the ministry before expiry of the validity.

"The validity of registration certificates of such entities whose validity was extended till 30.09.2023... and whose renewal application is pending, will stand extended till 31.03.2024 or till the date of disposal of renewal application, whichever is earlier," states the public notice issued by FCRA division of the ministry on Monday.

It adds that for NGOs whose FCRA registration is expiring between September 30, 2023 and March 31, 2024, and which have applied or will apply for renewal before expiry of validity of the five-year licence, the licence "will stand extended up to 31.03.2024, or till the date of disposal of renewal application, whichever is earlier".

The notice, however, clarified that the FCRA licence of NGOs whose renewal plans has already been turned down, will be deemed to have expired on the date of such refusal, rendering them ineligible to either receive or utilise any foreign contribution.

As per the home ministry's FCRA website, 16,666 NGOs and associations with FCRA licence were active as on September 25, while the FCRA licence of 13,222 entities was deemed expired. The FCRA registration of another 20,694 NGOs to receive foreign funds, had been cancelled, it said.

In poll-bound Chhattisgarh, Rahul distributes funds for construction of houses under state scheme

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Raipur: Asserting that a caste census is the "X-ray of Hindustan", Congress MP Rahul Gandhi on Monday promised that if his party forms the government at the Centre, its first step would be to conduct a caste census to give OBCs their rightful benefits.

Launching the Chhattisgarh government's Gramin Awas Nyay Yojana in Bilaspur, aimed at providing housing for the poor, he accused PM Narendra Modi of "concealing data" from an earlier caste census. "The Congress (government) conducted a census, which recorded the population of every caste in the country. The Union government has this report but Modiji doesn't want to reveal it," he said, adding that caste census has to be conducted if due participation is to be given to OBCs, Dalits, tribals and women.

"The country is not governed by MLAs or MPs but by decisions made by secretaries and cabinet secretaries. Of the 90 secretaries in various Union ministries, only three are from the OBC category. These three persons control only 5% of the country's budget. Does India have only 5% OBC population?" he said, adding, "A caste census is the answer to such questions. Why is PM Modi scared of it? It will only bring about transparency and equal distribution of benefits among OBCs, Dalits, women, the general category, and others."

The Bhupesh Baghel government's Gramin Awas Nyay Yojana is aimed at providing financial assistance to the homeless and families having kutcha houses in rural areas. Rahul used a remote control to disburse the first instalment of Rs 25,000 each to 1.3 lakh beneficiaries for the construction of houses
