

Notice*Subject: Disciplinary Advisory Notice to Students Regarding Harassment and Coercion

It has come to the notice of the University, through complaints received by the Proctor Office, that certain groups of students are harassing fellow students and in the name of their so-called political affiliations, these group of students are reportedly pressurizing students to join their groups and to avoid attending classes, not appear for examinations, and refrain from submitting assignments.

Further, students who refuse to join or who leave these collectives are being threatened with false allegations and warned that their careers will be jeopardized.

Such acts of harassment, intimidation, and coercion are strictly against the University rules and will be dealt with severely. The University prioritizes a safe and conducive academic environment for all its students, free from fear and any pressure.

Students are urged to report any such incidents immediately to the Proctor's Office. Strict action will be initiated against anyone found indulging in such activities, including disciplinary proceedings as per the University statutes.

This is reiterated that, as per the norms, all such complainants' names will be kept anonymous.
