School of Global Affairs

B.R. Ambedkar University in Delhi

Seminar 2: “India’s International Thought in the Early Twentieth Century”

Date: 8 October 2025

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Venue: Room No. 117

The second seminar in the series featured Dr Martin Bayly from the London School of Economics, who delivered a talk titled “India’s International Thought in the Early Twentieth Century.”

Following the first seminar, the second seminar introduced the audience to the many intellectual sources of global international thought, with special reference to India’s international thought in 18th- and 19th-century colonial India. Speaker also discussed the origins of the discipline in India and its current implications. The session was interactive, and students asked several questions.
