

Name: Sakshi Khera

Batch: 2023-24

AUD Email ID: skhera.23@stu.aud.ac.in

Supervisor : Dr. Anand Burdhan

PhD Research Area: Ayurveda as a Living Knowledge System:
Continuities in Healing Traditions from Textual and Archaeological Sources to the Contemporary Period

Research Interest: Intangible Cultural Heritage and Living Traditions | Gender Studies | Integrating Archaeology with Ritualistic History | Food Archaeology | Textual Tradition and Heritage Reconstruction | Medical and Scientific Heritage of South Asia | Oral History | Indian Diasporic History |

Academic Achievements:

Journal Articles

Khera, S. (2026). "Integrating Tradition and Tourism: Ayurveda's Role in Shaping India's Medical Tourism Landscape. Dharohar: Belonging and Practice. Issue III.

Khera, S. (2025). "Ideation and Experiential Museology: A Comparative Study of Health Museum AIIMS, India and Wellcome Collection, UK". Journal of Indian Museums. Volume-LXXVI, November 2025.

Internships:

2024. Internship in Archaeology and Heritage Conservation organised by the Department of Archaeology, 20 May-31 May.

Workshop Attended:

2025. Academic Counsellors of PCPs on Support Services, Academic Counselling & Tutoring, 5-6 August.

2024. Exploring Museum Design, Workshop organised by School of Heritage Research and Management, 28-29 May.