

Recruitment for Research Associate

The Centre for Development Practice, Ambedkar University is looking for suitable candidates for the post of Research Associate (positions -2) to work full time on the NTFP project funded by The Ford Foundation. The duration of the appointments would be for 6 months .The candidates must have a Master's degree in Social Sciences or Ecology, preferably with a research degree or should have previous work experience of 2 years. The candidates should be willing to undertake field visits as and when required also candidates should have experience of conducting field studies and preparing reports.

Only shortlisted candidates will be called for an interview and no TA/DA will be given for attending the interview in Delhi.

Remuneration

Rs.25,000/- per month.

Interested candidates may send their detailed resume to: cdp@aud.ac.in.The last date of application (email applications) is 5th January, 2017.