The University

Ambedkar University, Delhi (AUD) was established by the Government of the National Capital Territory of Delhi through an Act of Legislature in 2007 and was notified in July 2008. Mandated to focus on research and teaching in the social sciences and humanities and guided by Dr Ambedkar's vision of bridging equality and social justice with excellence, AUD considers it to be its mission to create sustainable and effective linkages between access to and success in higher education. AUD is committed to creating an institutional culture characterized by humanism, non-hierarchical and collegial environment, teamwork and nurturance of creativity.

AUD functions through its various Schools and Centres. The Schools that AUD has established so far are the School of Development Studies, the School of Human Ecology, the School of Human Studies, the School of Law, Governance and Citizenship, the School of Business, Public Policy and Social Entrepreneurship, the School of Educational Studies, the School of Liberal Studies, the School of Culture and Creative Expressions and the School of Design. These Schools offer doctoral and masters programmes.

The School of Undergraduate Studies is the academic home for the undergraduate programmes in social sciences, humanities, mathematical sciences and liberal studies. The University offer BA Honours Programmes with major in Economics, History, Psychology, English, Sociology, Mathematics, Social Sciences and Humanities.

AUD is in the process of establishing a few Centres for Studies and Research. It has already established a Centre for Early Childhood Education and Development and a Centre for Community Knowledge. Other Centres on the anvil are Centre for Innovation & Entrepreneurship, Centre for Leadership and Change, a Centre for Equality and Social Justice, a Centre for Engaged Spiritualities and Peace Building and a Centre for Social Applications of Mathematics.

In the academic session 2009-2010, the University launched its first three MA Programmes. In the academic session 2011-2012, the University offered eight MA Programmes: MA Development Studies (School of Development Studies), MA Environment and Development (School of Human Ecology); MA in Psycho-social & Clinical Studies, MA Gender Studies (School of Human Studies), MBA (School of Business, Public Policy & Social Entrepreneurship), MA in Performance Studies, MA in Film Studies, MA in Visual Art, MA in Creative Writing (School of Culture and Creative Expressions). The School of Liberal Studies has launched four Masters level programmes in 2011-12: M.A. in Economics, M.A. in English, M.A. in History, and M.A. in Sociology.

The School of Business, Public Policy & Social Entrepreneurship (SBPPSE)

Within the ambit of the larger philosophy of AUD the 'School of Business, Public Policy and Social Entrepreneurship' (SBPPSE) has been set up to promote research and provide professional education and training in the field of Business Administration, Public Policy and Social Entrepreneurship. The SBPPSE is founded on the belief that there is a need to develop a holistic approach to business and profit within the larger context of the wider society and economy. In addition to the 2-year (full time) MBA programme which was launched in July 2012, the school proposes to offer Master's in Public Policy (MPP) and Master's in Social Entrepreneurship (MSE) in the coming years.

Two-year (Full Time) MBA Programme

SBPPSE endeavours to develop an environment of research and teaching of business, public policy and social entrepreneurship in an integrated fashion, rather than viewing them in isolated categories. This approach is based on a stakeholder theory rather than on a shareholder theory, viewing that the society, the larger economy, environment and employees have as much stake in business as the shareholders. Acknowledging the close linkages that exist between business, public policy and social enterprise, the proposed MBA programme will integrate basic elements of public policy and social entrepreneurship into the curriculum.

The two year (full time) MBA programme aims to impart professional education to future managers, to upgrade the knowledge and skills of the personnel already engaged in the corporate world and to develop motivation and skills in the participants to launch new enterprises, especially in the social sector. The programme will focus equally on wealth generators as well as wealth managers by sensitising them to wider socio-economic issues, creating awareness on the importance of enterprise creation (and employment generation), and by imparting knowledge and skills to future/ current managers for dealing with CSR related issues of the corporate world in a professional manner.

Programme Content & Delivery

The two-year (full time) MBA programme is structured in a trimester system of three terms each in the first year and second year of study and will have equal emphasis on conceptual knowledge as well as application of such knowledge to practical and experiential contexts. The programme looks beyond preparing young talents for taking on challenging jobs in the domestic and multi-national corporations; it will attempt to identify and extract the creative and innovative talents of the participants. Going beyond the exclusive focus on large and established/ organised sector, the programme addresses issues of micro/ small and unorganised sector of the economy. In addition to creating an environment of learning theoretical concepts and application skills, the programme is designed to develop people management skills such as communication, presentation, human/ interpersonal relations & leadership, sensitivity to culture, social behaviour etc.

Programme	Duration	Credits	Seats
MBA	Two years (six terms and Summer Internship	110	42

The curriculum of the two-year (full time) MBA programme has an innovative course structure incorporating latest developments in management education. The uniqueness of this programme is based on its approach to business and profit within the holistic context of the wider society and economy. The curriculum is designed to bring about radical change in the way students think, act, and perceive the world around them.

Student Assessment and Evaluation

The purpose of assessment and evaluation at AUD is to facilitate and promote learning with understanding. Students are expected to be regular in attending classes, workshops and other educational exercises. Work done by students during the teaching semester will count for more than the end-of-course examination. Grades will be given to students for performance in tests, classroom presentations, group discussions, fieldwork/ project works, term papers and other exercises designed by teachers. Ability to work in a group or design an investigative project may be tested and evaluation may include peer assessment. Results of assessment will be communicated to students in a timely manner so that they have adequate opportunity to improve their subsequent work. Tutorials and mentoring will be important features of all Programmes.

Medium of Instruction: English

Location of the University and Hostel Accommodation

AUD is presently located at two campuses: one in the Integrated Institute of Technology Campus, Sector 9, Dwarka, New Delhi, a ten-minute walk from the Metro Station at Sector 9, Dwarka and the other at its Kashmere Gate Campus, (near G.P.O. Kashmere Gate). The School of Business, Public Policy & Social Entrepreneurship will be located at the Dwarka Campus and classes will start from 1st July 2013. A limited number of seats are available in the University Hostel for students from outside the NCT of Delhi.

AUD hopes to move into its permanent campus in the next three or four years. The University visualizes its campus to be futuristic, both as physical and social spaces. The campus will be energy-efficient, ecologically-frugal and disabled-friendly. It is hoped that these will constitute spaces which will inspire openness and communality; spaces carved out of the urban landscape of Delhi which attempt to blend compact human habitations and workplaces in a seamless continuum with nature; spaces which include academic, residential, recreational and social facilities for students and staff.

Students Speak

We came here as strangers....nervous, anxious, overwhelmed with emotions. With big dreams and bigger expectations, we entered the gate of our "new college". Completely unaware of what was in store for us-professors, classmates, subjects and what not, questions like "did we make the right choice; is it going to be good; What if it is not what we expected?" sprung up while going towards the classroom.... But one thing what we were sure of was that a momentous event was to happen, and we were a part of it. The first batch, "the elite" batch; and yes! We were a part of it. The pace of our heart beats was increasing as we drew closer to the door. The door opened... and we entered into a completely new world - new faces, new people to interact with, new friends to make, new goals to achieve, new things to learn, a new road to lead, a new example to set and a new life to live. We met the professors who helped activate the dormant managerial skills; had inhibitions initially, were afraid to say things and to raise questions and to open ourselves.

Hours passed, then days and then weeks. And now, after months, we have finally come out of our cocoons, because of the varied activities we had, each of which was filled with fun, but in its essence taught us something enriching. While role plays gave us a platform to show our acting skills, it also gave us a deeper insight into issues such as the Air India crisis etc. Quizzes and case studies tested our general awareness. Continuous evaluation kept us on our toes and gave us opportunities to improve and prove our potential. Events such as Bizcom and Fresher's are a opportunities to have fun. The best of all-we had pizza parties and cash rewards every time we performed exceptionally in studies! For the "intellectuals", SBPPSE has so many sources of knowledge like the online journals, numerous case studies, a library with a rich collection of books, and a well-equipped computer lab.

Life at SBPPSE, is a potpourri of stupendous learning, for-the-first-time experiences with a pinch of fun. We are learning to look at the world with a kaleidoscopic view, where situation seems like an opportunity to grab and turn into something that will bring about a change in the society at large. We are the new generation- the socially responsible youth, the torch bearers. We are SBPPSEans!

Gender-Sensitive Campus Spaces

AUD is committed to ensuring a dynamic and participatory academic experience and safe campus environment. Our endeavour is to evolve campus spaces for our students and staff, both women and men, in which we as individuals and as part of diverse collectives can grow and explore our potential without fear or the burden of prejudices. Campus spaces are an integral part of our university life. Canteens, lawns, corridors, classrooms and other such spaces are those where a variety of gender ideologies play out in our daily interactions with our friends and colleagues. Campus spaces and even pedagogy affect the way we perceive and locate each other. Most of the time we find it difficult to grapple with the idea that our behaviour or our casual comments, thoughts, jokes and so on can contribute towards consolidating the alienating and offending culture of patriarchy. It would be instructive for us to unpack our 'common sense' ideas about men and women and the processes by which we gender our understanding of the 'self.' Building 'gender-sensitive,' healthy campus spaces would be crucial for creating an enabling environment where we as individuals and as groups can unfold our creative potential.

The prevalence of sexual harassment is one of the hindrances towards an enabling campus space. While we all might recognize and agree upon extreme forms of harassment, the acts that constitute harassment can be much more general and diffused in our life. It is, therefore, important to understand what constitutes sexual harassment and how it affects our everyday lives in both public and private spheres, in educational institutions and work environments. Our attempt is to device methodologies through which we can generate a consciousness amongst the university community that treats the experience of sexual harassment as a violation of one's dignity as well as freedom of mobility, freedom of speech and expression.

We are committed to providing a creative and stimulating academic culture and healthy and safe campus life to our students and staff. We welcome all those who join us in the coming year to become a part of this process of creating a campus environment with a unique and fulfilling experience.

Zero Tolerance for Ragging

No form of ragging shall be tolerated in the University campus. Fresh students are advised to desist from doing anything, willingly or against their will, even if ordered to do so by a senior or any other student, and any attempt at ragging should be promptly reported to the Anti-Ragging Squad or to the Dean or to the Head of the Institution, as the case may be.

Programmes across Schools

The School of Development Studies and the School of Human Studies have jointly launched a two-year MPhil programme in Development Practice in collaboration with PRADAN. The programme involves 'field immersion' for about two semesters in rural and tribal locations.

An MA programme in Global Studies is on the anvil. This involves participation of faculty across several Schools.

* MA programmes available from the School of Culture and Creative Expressions with specialisations in Visual Art, Literary Art, Cinematic Studies and Performance Studies.
