

Frequently asked questions (FAQ)

Online classes and assessments in School of Human Ecology

1. Which email should I use to access online classes and assessments?

Ans. Only official email id provided by the University can be used for online classes and assessments.

2. Can I use any other personal email id ?

Ans. No.

3. If I have any issue with my personal computer or connectivity what should I do ?

Ans. Hope you have participated in the questionnaire survey, online learning (QSOL) administered by your School. If at any time during the semester you have issues with either of the above, immediately inform the School office, Mentor, Program coordinator, or Dean.

4. How do I access various journals and academic websites from my home computer using INFED and SOPHOS ?

Ans. <https://aud.ac.in/services-1/library/vpn-access> Use this link for remote access of journals...For guideline use link...https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F_qCEet3rA and https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IjKiR_QoW18

For SOPHOS, you have to first install SOPHOS using the guidelines explained in the link above. In case of any problem, please contact IT Services <itservices@aud.ac.in>.

5. What should I do if I miss an online class or assessment due to personal reasons ?

Ans. In the beginning of classes understand properly how Google classroom (GC) works. If you have any doubt regarding GC, please ask the concerned faculty. All teachers will use GC as a platform for learning management system (LMS) where reading materials, video links, class schedule, detailed assessment calendar, messages, instructions etc. would be uploaded. This will help students to be on track along with other students in terms of class progress. This will also allow students to see and download any readings related to any class which is missed. Students may also seek individual online appointments regarding any class which is missed.
