

BR Ambedkar University,

Delhi signed a landmark MoU with Jamia Millia Islamia, aimed at fostering academic excellence & pioneering research initiatives. The partnership will drive mutual growth of both institutions' schools, departments and programmes through joint academic and research activities. The partnership will also organise joint national conferences, workshops and seminars to facilitate faculty interaction and knowledge sharing, as well as implement cultural and sports exchange programmes to enrich student experience and promote holistic development.

