Detention of migrant workers: TMC takes out rallies across W.B.

Leftist party protest against detention based on suspicion of being illegal Bangladeshi immigrants says BJP is against foreign party moves over possibility of SR in the state ahead of Assembly poll, calls it backdoor entry for NRC

By Anil Singh
Kolkata

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee on Monday condemned the "harassment" of migrant workers in different states, claiming that many of them were being kept in the jail for no reason.

Banerjee said her party would continue to fight for the rights of migrant workers and would not allow any law that would discriminate against them.

Protesters gathered at a rally in Kolkata on Sunday.

The TMC has also raised concerns about the possibility of a left special assembly session in the state. "The present situation is not just a matter of law, it is a matter of justice," Banerjee said. "We are not going to allow any law that would discriminate against migrant workers."

Migrants from West Bengal have been detained in different states like Odisha, Maharashtra and Andhra Pradesh on suspicion of being illegal immigrants. The TMC has also raised concerns about the possibility of a left special assembly session in the state.

Woman, son beaten up by Delhi police

Alina Datta
New Delhi

A migrant worker from West Bengal's Malda district alleged that she and her son were beaten up by Delhi police on suspicion of being illegal immigrants.

Alina said her son was playing in a parking lot in a building in South Delhi when he was beaten up by police. She said her son was injured and she was also beaten up.

The police have not yet responded to the allegations.

Detainees let go but drive against 'illegal immigrants' still on: Gurugram police

The Hindu Bureau
Gurugram

In a major crackdown, the Gurugram police have detained individuals for alleged illegal entry into the city. The police said that many of the detainees were migrants from West Bengal.

A community centre in Gurugram's Sector 34A designated as a special holding centre by the police.

legis in the next three days. Most of them were from Assam and West Bengal. There were also a few from Odisha and Maharashtra. The police said that many of the detainees were migrants from West Bengal.

Only three without shelter documents or valid entry permits were released. The rest were kept in a special holding centre. The police said that many of the detainees were migrants from West Bengal.

was still ongoing and no permits would be issued to the detainees. The police said that many of the detainees were migrants from West Bengal.

Bihar govt. to set up panel for welfare of sanitation workers

Press Trust of India
Patna

Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar on Sunday announced the formation of a committee to look into the welfare of sanitation workers in the state.

Kumar said the committee would look into the issues of sanitation workers, including their health, safety, and social welfare. He said that the government would take steps to improve their conditions.

The Bihar State Sanitation Workers' Union welcomed the move. It said that the government should take more steps to improve the welfare of sanitation workers.
