

RCP-Pediatrics, MPH) is a community pediatrician and has been engaged with the social sector for over 20 years. Her experience and expertise is in the area of malnutrition, child health, and child rights and she has many publications on these topics.

https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Vandana_Prasad4/contributions

She is National Convenor for Public Health Resource Network (PHRN) and Founder Secretary Technical Advisor, and ED of PHRS with which she has been leading models for community-based-management of malnutrition and participatory learning and action with women's groups in tribal/rural communities. She has been a Joint Convenor of People's Health Movement-India (Jan Swasthya Abhiyan) and an active member of the Right to Food Campaign. Dr Prasad has also served Government of India as Member (Child Health), National Commission for Protection of Child Rights.