CONCERNING LATE REGISTRATION FOR COURSES

This is to clarify that there can be no more registration for courses of Winter Semester 2017 in the School of Liberal Studies.

Deadlines for course registration have been communicated several times in several ways since the commencement of the present semester. Only cases of course registration/mis-registration arising from technical difficulties in the ERP system may be considered. Such cases will be resolved only when a student has submitted a valid hard copy registration form within the stated deadlines (17 January 2017 for initial registration and 1 February 2017 for 'add/drop'), the correctly dated form is available in the SLS Office and the form was signed by the Programme Coordinator and myself.

Requests for de-registration may still be considered by the Evaluation and Assessment Committee of SLS at this late date, but only with the written recommendation of the Programme Coordinator.
