

WS Orientation at SHRM, Qutub Campus

On 11th May 2022, the Orientation was held for the Winter Session as students of the School of Heritage Research and Management as they progressed into Semester II of their respective programmes, M A Archeology and Heritage Management and MA Conservation Preservation and Heritage Management.

The introductory remarks by Dean SHRM, were followed by a brief and dialogic session whose highlights were -the introduction of the courses for the current semester by their respective course coordinators, a presentation on the takeaways from the student engagement with SHRM library, and, an open house, where questions and suggestions were taken from students on the way forward for the semester and school, over refreshments.

Dean SHRM engaging with the students during Orientation

Deah SHRM with the Faculty during Orientation

Presentation on library at SHRM

Open House session

photo-session after open house